

Presentación de GRAMÁTICA

¡AVANZA!

Goal: Learn how to form the imperfect tense. Then use the imperfect to describe continuing activities in the past. Actividades 5–8

 ¿Recuerdas? Expressions of frequency p. R8

English Grammar Connection: There are ways other than the simple past tense (I studied) to say that something happened. You can also say I used to study or I was studying. In Spanish, these ideas are expressed by the imperfect tense.

The Imperfect Tense

Animated Grammar
ClassZone.com

The imperfect is another past tense in Spanish. How do you use it?

Here's how: The imperfect is used to describe something that was not perfected or not completed in the past. You use it to . . .

- talk about something that was happening
- say how old someone was
- talk about something you used to do
- tell what time it was

Regular verbs in the imperfect take these endings:

Note that the yo form and the usted/él/ella forms are the same.

	estar	hacer	salir
yo	estaba	hacía	salía
tú	estabas	hacías	salías
usted, él, ella	estaba	hacía	salía
nosotros(as)	estábamos	hacíamos	salíamos
vosotros(as)	estabais	hacíais	salíais
ustedes, ellos(as)	estaban	hacían	salían

Él estaba aquí cuando yo hacía el pastel. He was here when I was making the cake.

Only three verbs are irregular in the imperfect.

Cuando yo era niña, íbamos a la playa.
When I was little, we used to go to the beach.

ser	ir	ver
era	iba	veía
eras	ibas	veías
era	iba	veía
éramos	íbamos	veíamos
erais	ibais	veíais
eran	iban	veían

Más práctica

Cuaderno pp. 151–153

Cuaderno para hispanohablantes pp. 152–154

@HomeTutor
Leveled Grammar Practice
ClassZone.com